THE
POST-OFFICE
ANNUAL DIRECTORY,
AND CALENDAR, FOR

THIRTY-THIRD PUBLICATION.

EDINBURGH:
PRINTED BY BALLANTYNE AND CO.
FOR THE LETTER-CARRIERS OF THE GENERAL POST-OFFICE.

THE PROPRIETORS of the EDINBURGH POST-OFFICE DIRECTORY beg to return their grateful acknowledgments for the encouragement with which their labours have hitherto been received by the Public, and at the same time to express a hope that the efforts which they have this year made to render their Publication extensively useful, will meet with similar approbation. No labour nor expense has been spared to promote its utility; the utmost care and attention have been exerted to procure authentic information; and whilst they trust that their zeal and assiduity have not been fruitless, it will be their endeavour, in the future editions of the book, to employ the opportunities afforded by their situation to collect every species of information calculated to prove useful to men of business, to merchants and traders, and to the public in general. The Letter-Carriers possess facilities and advantages peculiar to themselves for the preparation of a work of this nature: and as it is equally their interest and their duty to deserve the favour of the public, they will use every honest and fair means to attain so desirable an object.

* * * Copies of the Map may be had by applying to any of the General Post Letter-Carriers, or to R. GRANT and SON, Booksellers, 82, Prince's Street.

The letters on the Map refer to the parishes, and the figures to the municipal districts.

EDINBURGH AND LEITH STREET DIRECTORY.

The situation of the Closets, Courts, and Lanes, are pointed out by their Names being printed in Italics, at the place or Number of the Street in which they occur; and also when any Street is divided by Cross Streets, the Divisions are distinguished by the Name of the Cross Street being printed in Italics, with a ☞ before it, between the two Numbers of the Street in which they occur.

*.* To those having occasion to circulate advertisements, &c. this part of the Directory, in connexion with the List of Letter-carriers at the beginning of the book, will be exceedingly useful, — the names and addresses being taken from the following list, and then thrown into districts for delivery, according to the rounds of the different Letter-carriers.

MONEY ORDER OFFICE.—For the security of sums of money not exceeding five guineas, sent in letters by post, the Postmaster-General has authorized the establishment of the Money Order-office, where orders are given (payable at sight) on the Postmasters in Scotland, England, and Ireland. Attendance is given from 6-30 m. to 9-15 a. daily, Saturdays excepted.

LATE DELIVERY of LETTERS.—Representations having been made of the time occupied by the LETTER CARRIERS in the DELIVERY of their LETTERS through the City, the inconvenience has been ascertained to be in a great measure, if not entirely, attributable to the delays experienced by the Carriers at hall doors, owing to servants not answering the bells, and in some cases, by the servants not being provided with money to pay the postage. Instructions have been issued to the Letter Carriers to rap or ring at each hall door twice, pausing an instant. The application of the Carrier, therefore, cannot be mistaken; and the public are earnestly requested to aid the Postmaster-General in his Lordship's anxiety to expedite the general delivery of the correspondence, by obliging servants to answer immediately the Carrier's application, and to have the servant previously provided with sufficient sums to discharge their demands.

PRIVATE BOXES.—For the accommodation of merchants and others who, from circumstances, may find it more convenient to send for their Letters, Private Boxes are kept at the General Post Office, into which such Letters are put and taken charge of until sent for by the parties. For particulars, apply to the Clerk, at the Paid Letter Office.

MAIL-COACH ROUTES FROM EDINBURGH,

SHOWING THE ARRIVAL AND RETURN OF THE MAIL AT EACH OF THE UNDER-MENTIONED PLACES.

THE following Lists will, it is hoped, be found of much importance to the Public, as showing the course of Post, and enabling persons to avail themselves of Mail Conveyances. A very trifling calculation will also enable them to ascertain the time of the Mail passing any of the intermediate places. The Third Column shows the time of the Mail passing, and the last that of its return to Edinburgh. The return of the London Mails is calculated by London time.

FOR THE # HACKNEY-COACHES OF EDINBURGH.

It is enacted by the LORD PROVOST and MAGISTRATES of Edinburgh,—

1. That no Carriage shall ply for hire within the City, Suburbs, or Port of Leith, without being approved of and licensed by a Magistrate. Each License shall continue in force for two years only.

2. That each licensed Carriage shall have a number issued for it, which shall be affixed, together with the Owner's name, in legible letters, of a colour different from the Carriage, at least one inch in length, on each door, immediately below the window frame; and the number shall also be distinctly painted on the centre of the back of the Carriage, or on a piece of tin fixed under the back window.

3. That each licensed Carriage shall be always provided with horses in good condition; and the Carriage, including the cushions, steps, springs, blinds, windows, and check strings, as also the harness of the horses, shall always be kept in good order and repair. The coachman, when driving, shall always keep the check-string in his left hand.

4. That each Coachman shall be cleanly in his person, and conduct himself in a proper, civil, and decorous manner on all occasions.

5. That the Stances shall be South College street, Tron Church, Prince's street East and West ends, George street between Hanover and Frederick streets, Queen street East and West ends, and Union place, or at such other places as may from time to time be appointed. While the Carriages are at the Stances, the coachman shall either sit on the box or stand at the horses' heads.

6. That there shall not be fewer than six Carriages at each Stance every week-day at 9 o'clock, A.M., and on Sunday, one-fourth of the Carriages licensed shall attend at each Stance from 10 A.M. to 10 P.M. in rotation of numbers.

7. That, when a Carriage is at a Stance, it shall be held to be disengaged. The Coachman shall not enquire where he is to go previously to being engaged—nor plead a pretended prior engagement—nor draw off the Stance on account thereof, the proof of a real engagement lying with the Coachman. He shall wait, either at taking up or setting down a Party, as long as he shall be required. When a Carriage is engaged, the hour shall be punctually kept, and the arrival immediately announced.

8. That Carriages shall be hired from the Stance nearest the residence of the Party.

9. That all parcels or other articles left in Carriages shall be immediately returned to the Owner, if known, or if not known, shall be sent to the Council Chamber.

10. That the fares shall be charged in terms of the annexed Table.

11. ## I. INSURANCE COMPANIES.

ASYLUM LIFE OFFICE,

70, CORNHILL, and 5, WATERLOO PLACE, LONDON.

DIRECTORS.

The Honourable WILLIAM FRASER,—Chairman.

Major-General Sir J. LAW LUSHINGTON, C.B.,—Deputy Chairman.

Foster Reynolds, Esq.	Francis Kemble, Esq.	William Edmund Ferrers, Esq.
William Pratt, Esq.	Capt. Geo. Harris, R.N., C.B.	Thomas Fenn, Esq.
John Kymer, Esq.	Charles William Hallet, Esq.	G. Farren, Esq. Res. Director.

Office in Edinburgh,—4, DUNDAS STREET,—HUGH FRASER, W.S., Agent.

THE following are among the advantages which this Company offers to the Insuring Public:—

1st, The rates of Premium, especially for ages under fifty, are the lowest ever hitherto published, in proof of which a comparison is confidently invited with the Tables of any other Office in the United Kingdom.

2d, The facilities afforded to all classes of insurers, by having it in their power to adopt either an even rate for life, an ascending scale, or a descending scale, as may suit the convenience of parties; or further, an alternative plan, by which one-third of the even rate of premium (on policies for the whole of life) may remain unpaid, and be deducted from the sum insured at the end of life, with interest at the rate of four per cent.

3dly, The adaptation of the Tables to any service, or to any country in the world; and it will be found that in Foreign Insurances also, the extra rates charged are considerably lower than those of other offices.

4thly, The Insurance of persons of advanced age, and also the undertaking of risks that might be rejected by other offices, at moderate rates, deduced from very extensive and accurate observations.

5thly, The great facility afforded for the transfer of policies, the Directors, instead of requiring assignments of these to be executed, in every case issuing a new policy in name of the intended assignee, on surrendering the former, and merely paying the price of the new stamp.

The following are selected from the Even rates:—

Age.	Seven Years.	Whole Life.	Age.	Seven Years.	Whole Life.
20	L.0 17 1	L.1 11 9	40	L.1 10 8	L.2 17 1
30	1 2 10	2 2 0	50	2 1 7	4 2 0

SPECIMENS OF THE ASCENDING SCALE OF PREMIUMS.

Age.	First Seven Years.	Next Seven Years.	Rest of Life.

50	2 11 11	4 0 11	7 0 3

FOREIGN RESIDENCE.

Persons voyaging or residing abroad, or engaged in the Naval or Military Service in any part of the world, insured for the whole of Life, or for any specific term.

Insurances, either for foreign or domestic risks, may be effected without delay, and full particulars obtained from

ATLAS FIRE AND LIFE ASSURANCE COMPANY OF LONDON,

(Instituted 1808, and empowered by an Act of Parliament of 54 Geo. III.)

(CAPITAL—ONE MILLION, TWO HUNDRED THOUSAND POUNDS.)

LIFE DEPARTMENT.

WHILE the Premiums are as moderate as is consistent with security, the Holders of Life Policies are entitled to periodical additions from the surplus Premiums, which may be applied either to increase the sum payable at the death of the Insured, or to reduce the future Payments of Premium. That this is a very substantial advantage will be perceived from the following TABLE, showing the Additions made to Life Policies for L. 1000, effected in London, or through an Agent in Great Britain, which have been in force for the Fourteen Years ending at Christmas 1830. Another addition will be made as at Christmas last—but the amount is not yet declared. It will, however, be satisfactory. Proportionate additions are made to policies for other amounts, or which have been in force for shorter periods.

Date of Policy.	Sum assured.	Annual Premium,	Age at Commencement.	Amount that has been added to the Sum assured, payable at the Party's death.
Dec. 25, 1816.	L. 1000	L. s. d. 21 15 10	20	L. 230
do.	1000	24 0 10	25	236
do.	1000	26 14 2	30	244
do.	1000	29 18 4	35	256
do.	1000	33 19 2	40	278
do.	1000	38 19 2	45	304
do.	1000	45 6 8	50	340
do.	1000	53 3 4	55	382
do.	1000	63 13 4	60	449

Thus, by the above table, it will be seen, that a person insuring L. 1000 at 20 years of age, at the end of 14 years will have paid L. 305 : 1 : 8 of Premium; and, were he then to die, his heirs would receive L. 1230 instead of L. 1000. These additions will, on comparison, be found as GREAT AS HAVE BEEN MADE BY ANY OTHER INSURANCE OFFICE WHATSOEVER.

As to the rates charged by the Company, it may suffice here to say, that the Tables adopted by the Directors were originally framed upon the sound principles of mathematical computation; and the practice of the Equitable Society has put them to the unerring test of long and extensive experience.

FIRE DEPARTMENT.

The Assurance of every species of Property from loss or damage by Fire is undertaken by the Company on highly favourable terms.

The following are the rates for all policies where the premium exceeds 5s:—

Common Risks, 1s. 6d. per cent. Hazardous ditto, 2s. 6d. Doubly Hazardous, 4s. 6d.

The duty on Farming Stock Assurances being wholly taken off, all Farming Stock may be assured at the low price of 2s. for every L. 100, without any restrictive clause whatsoever, the former charge having been 5s.

A payment for rent is made by the Company in case of Loss on Buildings, without any extra premium. Proposals, fully explanatory of the principles and rates of the Company, may be had at the Company's office, No. 7, Great King Street, Edinburgh.

LIFE DEPARTMENT.

THE CALEDONIAN INSURANCE COMPANY offers to the Public the security of an ample subscribed capital, as a Guarantee Fund, together with all the advantages resulting from a participation of profits on the mutual Assurance Plan without risk, while, for the convenience of those who prefer a CERTAIN future benefit at a LOW rate of Premium, the Company grants Policies without participation either for the whole period of life, or for short periods at corresponding rates of Premium. In both, the rates are fixed as low as is deemed consistent with safety, and it is provided that, at the expiration of the first ten years, and afterwards of EVERY SEVENTH YEAR, the Profits shall be ascertained by a careful investigation, and that FOUR-SIXTHS thereof shall be apportioned to each Policy of five years' standing, and upwards, entitled to participate, and that according to the number of years such Policy has existed.

ONE-SIXTH is set aside as a guarantee fund for the Life Policy holders, and eventually, at periodical investigations, apportioned among those entitled to participate, the remaining ONE-SIXTH is allotted for the Proprietors of the Company, as a consideration for their having pledged their subscribed and accumulated capital in addition to the profits of the Life Department, as a farther guarantee to Policy Holders.

Payment of Premium may be made Yearly, Half-yearly, or Quarterly.

The Holders of Policies on the life of another are protected in the event of the party whose life is insured dying by duelling or suicide.

Liberal advances made upon Policies effected with the Company.

A fair price given to parties who wish to surrender their Policies.

No charge made for Entrance-Money. THESE ADVANTAGES ARE NOT EXCEEDED BY THE TERMS OF EVEN THE MOST FAVOURED ESTABLISHMENT, EITHER FOR SECURITY OR LIBERALITY.

FIRE DEPARTMENT.

The Company insures property of every description on the most reasonable terms. A duty of 3s. per cent is payable to Government on all property insured against fire, with the exception of Agricultural Stock, which is now exempt from Duty.

Prospectuses, with Tables of Rates for both Fire and Life Insurance may be obtained by applying at the Head Office, No. 13, Bank Street, Edinburgh, No. 51, Dame Street, Dublin, No. 8, Wellington Street, Southwark, London, or at any of the Agencies in Scotland, England, and Ireland.

A return of nine per cent was made on the Premiums received from Candlemas 1825 to Candlemas 1832; and this, notwithstanding a more than average amount of losses during that period.

The business of the Society has been gradually and steadily increasing since the adoption of the present system of dividing the profits; and as the losses during the current seven years will not, in all probability, be above an average, the Assured have reason to anticipate a still more favourable result at the next investigation.

All town risks of the first class,—houses situated in the country,—as also farm houses and steadings, are taken as common Insurances, as 1s. 6d. per cent. At the same rate of premium, the stock and crop on any part of a Farm may be insured in one sum, without the average clause; and if preferred, the sum insured may be allowed to decrease monthly or quarterly, whereby a considerable saving is effected by the insurer.

Insurances on Farm Stock and Implements of Husbandry, are now exempt from the payment of duty.

THIS Company was established in 1823, and is constituted by Act of Parliament, for the purpose of carrying on the business of Life Assurance in all its branches, on the most approved principles, combining the advantages of a Mutual Assurance Society with the security of a subscribed capital. While the Assured have the right of participating septennially in the profits of the whole business of the Company, to the extent of four-fifths, they are exempted from all risk and responsibility by a subscribed capital of Half a Million, guaranteed by a large and influential body of Proprietors.

At the first periodical investigation, a Bonus was added to the Policies which had been in existence for five years, entitled to participate, varying in amount from 20 to 38 per cent on the Premiums paid, according to the particular circumstance of each individual Insurance.

The subjoined Tables of Rates, upon examination, will be found to hold out very advantageous terms to persons effecting Insurances with the Company; and it will be seen, that those who do not wish to participate in the profits, have the option of assuring at a lower rate of premium, without participation.

Insurances are effected on Joint Lives, and on Survivorships, and in any other way that the interest or convenience of parties may require, upon terms equally advantageous to insurers.

No charge is made for Entrance Money, nor for Policies beyond the amount of the stamp.

Twenty-one days allowed for payment of Premiums. Losses paid three months after proof of death.

A liberal price is given for Policies which are to be discontinued.

The Company's business is uniformly conducted on the most liberal and equitable principles, and with strictest secrecy. A prospectus, containing full Tables, and every other information, may be had gratis, at the Office in Edinburgh, or from any of the Company's Agents.

FIRE DEPARTMENT.

THE allowance of ten per cent which has been made on the Premiums paid on Policies of seven years' standing, is the surest proof of the unprecedented success of this Institution.

LIFE DEPARTMENT.

Tables have been calculated expressly for this Institution, and, independent of a reduced rate of Premiums, as compared with other offices having a subscribed Capital, persons assured for the term of life will be entitled, at the end of every seven years, to one moiety of the profits of the Company, after a deduction of such sum per annum for the Guarantee of the Capital as the Directors may think reasonable, the extent of which is, however, limited by the deed of settlement.

The share of the profits to be so allowed to the assured may be applied, either by adding to the amount of their respective Policies such reversionary sums as are equivalent to such profit, or in reduction of the Premiums thereafter to be payable on such Policies, provided such option be declared in writing within three calendar months after the division shall have been declared; but if such option be not so declared, such share of profits will be added to the amount of the Policies.

The first division of profit to the assured was made to Christmas, 1828, and a second division of profit was made to Christmas, 1835. At each period the reversionary bonuses added to the several Policies averaged rather more than 28 per cent on the amounts of Premiums paid thereon during the preceding seven years.

If any person assured with this company for seven years, or for life, should die within thirty days after the Premium shall become due, such assurance is to be valid in case the Premium be paid within such period of thirty days.

No additional Premium will be required from Military men, unless when called into actual service.—No charge will be made for Entrance Money, Admission Fees, or for Policies beyond the cost of the stamp.

BY A RECENT DECISION of the Court of Directors, Persons who now effect Insurances with this Company for the whole Term of Life, will participate in the Profits, after having paid FIVE ANNUAL PREMIUMS, without incurring the responsibility attached to Societies for mutual Insurance. This advantage is not given to the public by any other office in London except the Equitable Society, where it is confined to the privileged number of five thousand participating members, and will be found very suitable to persons as they advance in life, whereby their expectation of partaking of profits, assigned at distant periods, become very precarious.

The BONUS of L.1, 10s. per cent per annum, declared on Policies in the year 1831, was added to the sums insured, and the present value of such Bonus may either be received by the parties, or applied in reduction of their future Premiums.

The BONUS on Policies now in force, including the Prospective Addition recently declared, amounts in many cases to TWENTY PER CENT ON THE SUMS INSURED, and will increase annually, until the next general appropriation of Profits in the year 1841.

Every description of Insurance may be effected with this Company, at REDUCED PREMIUMS, when persons do not participate in Profits.

When persons wish to discontinue their Insurances from any Cause, the Company will purchase their Policies upon equitable terms.

Prospectuses, containing Tables of Premiums, and Examples of the different modes in which the Profits can be applied, may be had at either of the Company's Offices, or of any of the Agents in the principal Towns throughout the Kingdom.

ASSURANCES are effected by this Society to the extent of L.5000, upon the same sole or joint or surviving life or lives, and are not confined to the profession of the Law, but are open to persons in every station in life. FOUR-FIFTHS of the Profits made by this Society will be appropriated to the Persons assured for the whole term of life.

On the 31st of December, 1840, and at the end of every Seven Years from that period, the profits divisible amongst the Assured will be apportioned amongst such of the Assured for the whole term of Life, as shall have been so assured for the space of three years or upwards, previously to those periods respectively, subject only to the reservation of such a sum of money as the Directors shall deem necessary to be carried forward, to the period of the next septennial division, for the benefit of the Assured. For the amounts which shall be so apportioned, equivalent reversionary sums will be added to the Policies respectively of those entitled.

The subjoined is a SPECIMEN TABLE of Bonuses, in even pounds, added to Policies of L.1000 each, which had been in force during the first ten years of the existence of the Society, and declared on the 31st December, 1833, compared with the amount of Premiums that had been received and improved at interest.

Note.—Due allowance must be made for extreme and intermediate ages, and the difference of years during which the Assurances have been in force; but the general distribution has been made on the principle, and according to the scale above given.

If any persons should wish to discontinue the payment of his annual Premium, the Directors have power either to purchase his Policy for a sum of money payable immediately, or, in consideration of its surrender, to grant a new Policy, without any further annual Premium, for a sum to be agreed upon, payable at the decease of the life assured. And the person to whom such new Policy is granted will be entitled in respect thereof, to participate in the periodical divisions of the profits.

Persons who shall have been insured for the space of two years, in L.1000 or upwards, for the whole continuance of life, have the power of electing either from among the Proprietors or from among themselves, two of the four Auditors of the Society.

Parties may arrange to pay their Premiums either in a single payment, by annual payments during the whole continuance of the Assurance, or by annual payments during a limited number of years only.

No entrance money is required; nor any extra Premium on persons in the Army or Navy, unless in actual service.—Assurances may be effected upon the lives of persons residing at a distance from London, by their appearing before a Solicitor in the country; and the payment of a fine for non-appearance at this Office is then dispensed with.

The Assured are allowed to pass by sea from one part of the United Kingdom to another, and to and from the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, and Man; and also, in time of peace, in Queen's ships, and packet or passage vessels, to and from British and Foreign ports in the English Channel, between the Texel and Brest, both inclusive, without any special leave or license from the Directors.

The sums due on the Policies will be paid within three months after proof of the requisite facts.

Assurances may be effected through any respectable Attorney or Solicitor in England, of whom Prospectuses may be had. A party may himself effect an Assurance by writing to the Actuary, or attending personally at the Society's Office in FLEET STREET.

The Assured are requested to take notice, that no renewal Premiums are ever received from themselves or their Agents, without printed receipts, signed by two Directors and the Actuary, being issued from this Office.

Attendance is given daily, from Nine o'clock in the morning till Four in the afternoon, at the Office, where the terms of Assurances may be had, Proposals for effecting Assurances received, and every information respecting the Society obtained.

THIS Company effect Life Insurances on equitable principles, with entire exemption from the liability of Partnership.

A large Capital, subscribed by the Proprietors, forms the security of the Assured.

The Premiums may be all paid at once, or in any given number of years, in the option of the party making the Insurance; a plan, the advantages of which are strikingly obvious, as it affords an opportunity of securing a certain provision, independent of all after risks from failure in paying the Premium, or of paying a larger Premium, while the means of doing so may be more at command: or the Premiums may be paid quarterly, half-yearly, or yearly, as may suit the convenience of those holding the Policies.

Each Policy for Life is entitled to share the surplus profits, which are declared every seven years.

All transactions in the Life Department are considered strictly confidential.

Prompt Payment of Claims is made Three Months after proof of Death.

The following rates of Insurance for single Lives are given as specimens from the Tables. The rates for One and Seven years, and for the whole period of Life without Profits, will, it is believed, be found, on comparison, very advantageous to the Public, while insurances for the whole period of Life are equally so, if the benefit to be ultimately derived from a participation of the Profits is taken into account.

LIFE ASSURANCE SOCIETIES are of incalculable value in mitigating the evils flowing out of the individual uncertainty of life, and in equalizing to the survivors of a short life the fruits of a long one.

The important advantages they confer, however, are as yet almost exclusively enjoyed by the upper classes. The great bulk of society, possessed of no certain income, relying on the exertions of industry for support, however ample for the present, but subject to the various uncertainties of life, seldom, in any number, resort to Life Assurance for the provision of a family. The apprehension of misfortune, and the uncertainty of a continuation of their income, deter them from entering into Contracts for Assurance, where the advantage, being so remote, is moreover made to depend on the chances of a permanent state of prosperity, over which the most prudent have no kind of control.

To remedy the defects of the present system, the application of a new principle is required, viz.—to make the advantage derivable from an annual saving or accumulation contingent on two or more chances,—death—or misfortune during the lifetime of the party assured. Therefore, to include all classes, those who do, and those who do not, possess certain incomes, that plan of Life Assurance would far surpass all others in utility and attraction, which would convert the annual saving or premium paid by the assured, either into a protection to him, in the event of misfortune,—the means of promoting at all times his present interest,—or a provision for his family at death.

By the plan of this Society, it is intended to give the most powerful encouragement to lay up a provision for the future. It is therefore proposed, that the fund arising out of the premiums paid by the assured shall be made capable of fulfilling two or more objects,—1st, The payment of the contract on the policy. 2dly, A loan fund, out of which the assured will be entitled, under certain guarantees, to borrow equal to two-thirds of his payments. 3dly, in the event of inability to continue his payments, such equitable disposition of his interest in his policy will be allowed him as he may choose. By this means his apprehension of great pecuniary loss, in the event of non-payment of premium, will be removed, a vast class of society will thereby be admitted, and every individual while steadily pursuing one object, a provision for his family at death, will have, by the plan of this Society, a door open to his saving, which will never be closed against his own wants or his own use; and thus that great class of the community, those possessed of no certain income, who, for want of better, have hitherto availed themselves of those useful institutions the Saving's Banks, will find, that, combined with a Life Assurance, the advantage of a Savings Bank and of a Benefit Society is secured to them from the same source,—viz. their earnings, through means of this Society.

Under the following heads the principles of this Society are briefly enumerated; and on considering these it will be found that in no case will the assured become a loser. In the event of death, his family secures an independence; in the event of misfortune, his previous prudence has forestalled its worst effects; and should he require the use of capital, he finds a fund at his command; and even he is protected against his own negligence; as, in the event of his discontinuing his payments, his family at his death will receive two-thirds of what he has expended after five payments.

To the Widow, and younger Children, when a claim vests in them, a special additional bonus is given; because to them death is most frequently the greatest misfortune; and to this class a stimulus is properly afforded by enlisting the feelings of affection in aid of a general spirit of prudence.

I. OBJECTS OF THE SOCIETY.

1. A Life Assurance may be effected by one payment, or by annual premiums payable monthly, quarterly, or half-yearly, or upon the increasing or decreasing scales, on joint lives and survivorships; or upon the lives of Naval and Military Men, according to the climate.

2. Annuities, immediate or contingent, will be granted. Also, endowments for children.

3. Deferred annuities upon a plan in accordance with the new principles of the Society, more favourable than any hitherto offered to the public. No entry money charged.

II. USES.

The Policy will be converted at any time, according to the option of the assured, either into an immediate payment of its present value,—into a new policy,—or into an immediate or deferred annuity, without further payment,—or into a security on which he may borrow, under certain guarantees two-thirds of all his previous payments;—or should he have forfeited his Policy, through inability or neglect, two-thirds of his payments, after the fifth year, will be returned to his Representatives at his death.

III. LOAN FUND.

Two-thirds of all previous payments, together with the amount of any declared bonus, may be borrowed by the assured on complying with the conditions of the office.

IV. BONUS.

Two-thirds of the profits of both the Life Assurance and of the Reversionary investment of the Guarantee Fund, estimated annually, after the first division, will be divided among the assured, which, at their option, will be paid in money, added to the policy, or applied in the reduction or extinction of future premiums.

When a claim vests in widows or younger children, a special bonus will be added.

The Rates of assurance are calculated from original and extensive manuscript tables founded on a law of mortality, which has been derived by combining accurate theory with the best experience; and they afford the most perfect and equitable adjustment of each contingency to the several periods of human life. The rates of assurance, besides being guaranteed by a capital of £500,000, will be found much lower than those demanded by Mutual Assurance Societies; and the division of two-thirds of the profits of both the Life and Reversionary Interest Departments, with the assured, will, on that score alone, be a greater inducement to assure with this Society than has hitherto been afforded by any other.

The Society has also relaxed the restrictions on travelling beyond the limits of Europe, except to places specially enumerated; and in cases of suicide, where the policy has been in force for seven years, it will not be forfeited.

DEFERRED ANNUITIES.

I. Amongst the several remedies proposed to mitigate or diminish the burden of poor-laws, none has hitherto been brought forward or adopted that would either induce or afford facilities to the able-bodied members of society, to be responsible for their own support.

II. In a state of employment and health every one may be assumed capable of self-support; competition has, no doubt, reduced the rewards of labour to the standard of existence, rendering it the more necessary that the smallest surplus, over exigencies, should be carefully husbanded in order that, by the best facilities given to economy and the application of means to ends, it may be rendered capable of supplying the deficiencies, caused by want of employment, sickness, the several casualties of life, and by old age. Over the frequent fluctuations in the quantity of employment, the employed have no control; and, as the cause is not dependent on fixed laws, but most frequently on the contingencies which affect the quantity of money, their duration or occurrence cannot be submitted to calculation—at any rate, the remedy is beyond their reach. The laws of sickness have been sufficiently ascertained, for fixing a provision apportioned to the value of a given contribution; but although such a provision is not to be overlooked, it is of trifling importance compared to the hardships resulting from want of employment, and unprovided old age. Want of employment, sickness, and old age, may fairly be classed under one head, viz. :—a state of non-productiveness. To those, therefore, who solely depend on their labour, which is seldom too highly remunerated, it must be a matter of importance, out of their earnings when employed, to provide for every period of non-productiveness, from whichever of the foregoing causes it may arise.

III. The two institutions open to the productive classes, are Savings' Banks and Benefit Societies, whose nature and scope, when examined, will be found to offer but a very imperfect remedy against the evil, being institutions wherein the limited means of this class are not best made applicable to their several ends.

Savings' Banks are of unquestionable utility, but they afford no contingent future advantage, and, besides the sum that can be hoarded is incommensurate with the wants of the middle productive classes.

Benefit Societies propose to offer provision in sickness and old age, but their construction will be found imperfect, and their plan the least profitable application of the means of economy.

1. Because sickness itself is not a calamity of equally probable duration to the fluctuations in the quantity of employment and other casualties, and misfortune, against which they offer no protection.
2. Because out of a given means the sum laid aside for sickness must diminish the provision for old age.
3. Because many must contribute to the sick fund who never become chargeable upon it, and the value of such contributions is lost to themselves and families.
4. Because sickness, being a state of non-productiveness, must necessarily be included in any protection against such an occurrence.

IV. Various observations have been made on the duration of sickness amongst the industrious classes, from an early period of life until its close. Those most in use are:—The sickness amongst the Benefit Societies in Scotland, given by the Highland Society; the sickness amongst the labourers in the East India Company's Service; the sickness amongst persons employed in cotton, silk, wool, flax, and in the potteries, by the Factory Commissioners; and the sickness amongst the English Benefit Societies, from returns made to the Society for the Diffusion of Useful Knowledge.

These results, though varied, show how inconsiderable is the amount of sickness during that period of life, between the ages of 20 and 65, when each individual is more immediately thrown on his own resources—they are as follows:—

Class of Persons.	Period.	Average amount of Sickness.		Average yearly Sickness in the period.
		Months.	Days	Days-
Highland Society's return,	20 to 65	16	4	11
East India Company's labourers,.....	20 to 65	9	0	6 1-15
Factory Commissioners—
Cotton.....	21 to 61	7	27	} 7½
Wool, Yorkshire.....	21 to 61	10	29
Do. West of England, ..	21 to 61	8	13
Flax, Yorkshire,.....	21 to 61	9	1
Silk, ..	21 to 61	11	4
Society for Diffusion of Useful Knowledge,.....	20 to 65	18	21	12½

Thus, it appears, that the highest expectation of sickness, amongst males, is twelve and a-half days, and the lowest six days, in each year from the age of twenty to sixty-five; its mean duration, inclusive of accidents of all kinds, would be nine and a quarter days, during which, from these causes, an individual may expect to be abstracted from productive employment throughout a period of forty-five years; while, it may be observed his religious observation of the seventh day, in which he "shall do no work," has diminished his productiveness, by its recurrence in the same period, six years and 156 days.

V. From the foregoing facts it must be obvious that provision in sickness, or a Health Assurance by means of a separate contribution, is unnecessary, more particularly as such separate contribution must tend to waste the resources out of which the industrious classes have to provide for the future. It also in effect throws the burthen of the permanently sick on one class exclusively, instead of society at large; who are thus called on for an act of benevolence, while they are scarce able to do justice to the claims of their own families. Besides this, no compensation is given out of the contribution for a provision in sickness and old age to the families of those who never reach the age of 65, though death should happen immediately preceding it; and, if an assumed hypothesis is correct, that sickness before death is not more than five weeks, and taking bed-lying-pay at 10s. per week, it will not unfrequently happen the only return a man may obtain as a long and steady contributor to a Benefit Society, will not exceed 50s., a sum scarcely equal to one year's payment at a shilling per week, while by his death he leaves his family entirely unprovided for.

VI. It is to remedy these defects, inherent in the constitution of Benefit Societies, that the National Loan Fund Life Assurance Society proposes to submit a plan of Deferred Annuities on a new principle, which will not only afford a more ample provision for old age, and protection against sickness and misfortune—but in addition, the means, at all times, of putting his energies in motion, and in the event of premature death, a better protection to his family.

The plan proposed will embody several essential objects:—

1. To secure an increased provision for old age out of a given saving, by applying it exclusively to the purchase of a Deferred Annuity.
2. To render the purchase of a protection in sickness unnecessary, by enabling the purchaser of a Deferred Annuity to withdraw or borrow two thirds of his previous payments.
3. By the use of two-thirds of all his payments when required, to limit misfortune and want of employment, and extend the power of productiveness by an increasing command, in each year, of capital, so that, while providing for old age, each successive contribution renders him more secure against present misfortune.
4. To afford, at the age at which the Deferred Annuity would commence, without reference to his then state of health, the option of receiving, instead of his annuity, its value in money, according to the value fixed on the contract, or a larger sum payable at his death.
5. In the event of death before the age at which he would be entitled to his Deferred Annuity, to return two-thirds of his payments to his family, or such fixed Life Assurance as may be settled on the contract.
6. In all such cases where the power of productiveness fails, either from disease or accident, to enable the assured on equal terms to convert his Deferred Annuity into a present Annuity.

VII. Notwithstanding the obvious and manifold advantages of this plan over every other hitherto proposed, for securing present and future competence to the industrious population, still more striking advantages will be exhibited by contrasting its prospective provision for old age with that offered by Benefit Societies. This arises from the non-abstraction of a given sum for a separate benefit in sickness, which protection by the operation of the Loan Fund on the Deferred Annuity, is not only more ample; but other misfortunes are provided against, which if calculated, and a separate contribution made for each, whose duration equals that of sickness, the purchase of them would entirely absorb the means of providing for old age, while such a system must tend to discourage productiveness, and afford no protection to a family in the event of premature death. The object this plan embraces is to open facilities to the efforts of self-support, to stimulate the independence of one class above the forced benevolence of another, while it recommends itself to the latter, by diminishing the burden of Poor-laws, which has been at all times irksome, disturbing the harmony, and fomenting the mutual distrusts of society.

The following is a comparison of the benefits to be derived from the contribution of 1s. per week, paid into a Benefit Society, or to purchase a Deferred Annuity from the National Loan Fund Society:—

It is not alone to the industrious classes this plan of Deferred Annuities will be found efficient, in securing an ample competency for old age; but also to that important class of the community who derive their income from a combination of capital and personal labour. To this class, the Savings' Banks do not afford a sufficiently profitable investment; and indeed the framework of such institutions as have been designed for the more humble classes, has not been made to suit their wants, or consult their interests, and there exists no institution at present to which they can resort, that would at the same time foster their industry—secure to them a competency in old age—and protect them against the varied casualties of life.

The Tables of Deferred Annuities have been constructed with a view to exhibit the benefits that may be secured by the smallest effort of frugality, and to suit the circumstances and convenience of all classes.

The object of Tables No. I. is to show the option of benefits the payment of 1s. per week, or £2. 12s. per annum, will secure at the period of attaining the age of 50, 55, 60, or 65.

The Tables No. II. show the Annual Premiums required to secure the option of given benefits at these ages—the sum required at each age to be paid down at once to purchase them—and also the sum at any age to be paid as disparity, so as to enable the purchaser, instead of paying the premium at his own age, to pay that set down for the age of 20, and by this means enabling the owner of a little saving to turn it to the best account. The Society will, moreover, receive all this sum by instalments, and two-thirds of the amount paid may, at any time be withdrawn on deposit of the policy, and in the event of death before the stipulated age, two-thirds of the payment will be returned to the family.

Premiums may be made payable either in a Single payment, or by Annual, Half-yearly, or Quarterly Payments.—4. Where Policies effected by parties on their own lives, are assigned to others for onerous causes, the holders are assured against the risk of the original assured dying by suicide or duelling.—5. THIS Company has been instituted exclusively for the purchase of Reversionary Rights—absolute or contingent—Annuities or Life Interest—Policies of Assurance on Lives—Shares in Government and Private Tontines—and in general of all rights extending over Property Funded or Real, or otherwise well secured—the emergence, or term of payment of which, depends upon some contingency of life or survivorship, susceptible of calculation.

Every Man of Business must have found, in the course of his experience, much difficulty in securing or realizing those rights belonging to his Clients, which, among the manifold relations of society and individuals, now so frequently arise, under Contracts of Marriage—Entails—and other Destinations, Family Settlements, and similar Deeds, where limited rights of Life Interest and Fee, depending in many cases on complicated contingencies, are secured to Parties having separate and frequently conflicting interests. Even where the contingencies by which such rights may be defeated, are comparatively of a remote and improbable nature, they nevertheless are found to affect their marketable value in perhaps a very disproportionate degree. For although a certain class of contingencies may be guarded against by Counter Assurances, through the medium of some one or other of the numerous Life Offices now established, still it is not easy at all times for individuals, unaccustomed to the consideration of such matters, either to devise the most effectual means, as applicable to any particular case, of securing the protection of Life Assurance, or to provide the necessary Funds for the payment of the requisite Premiums. Parties are thus frequently under the necessity of leaving themselves without the protection of Life Assurance, and thereby running the hazard of having their otherwise valuable rights entirely defeated, or are forced to bring them into the market, under every disadvantage. But these difficulties, so formidable, and frequently so oppressive to individuals, disappear, or are greatly modified, when a number of such contingent or reversionary rights are held by a Public Body or Company, who can, with comparative safety, on a large and collective scale, undertake the risk of contingencies, which, in any individual case, it would be most imprudent to hazard; or, if judged expedient, can readily command the means of resorting to the protection of Life Assurance, in the most convenient and efficient form.

The NORTHERN REVERSION COMPANY has accordingly been established with the view of meeting the exigencies above alluded to. The accurate observations which have now been made on the duration of human life—the valuable practicable tables which have been deduced from these observations—and the well ascertained formulae by which such computations are regulated, enable correct calculations to be made, in almost every case, of the true worth and value of any reversionary or life interest right, depending on particular or combined contingencies of life or survivorship. While, in this way, the Capital of a Company may be safely invested with a reasonable prospect of remunerating profit. Parties having such rights to dispose of, and wishing to realize their fair marketable value, have the means of doing so afforded to them through the medium of this Company, without undergoing the expense and delay, and very frequently the disappointment, attending a Public Sale.

In order, as far as possible, to facilitate the transaction of business with the Company, Forms, adapted to various Cases, have been prepared, for enabling Parties, or their Agents, to tender proposals of Sale. Copies of these forms, as well as every other necessary information, may be readily had on application to the Secretary of the Company, at his Chambers, 12, Duke Street.

LIFE SOCIETY.

ACCUMULATED CAPITAL, UPWARDS OF L.1,600,000.

THIS Society is founded on the Equitable principle of Mutual Guarantee, the whole benefit of its business being enjoyed by the Members in the form of Bonuses, added periodically to the sums Insured. The Premiums (under 45 years of age) are nearly ten per cent below the usual rates.

Persons Insuring with this Society thus obtain an immediate advantage in the lowness of its rates, besides the ultimate benefit of its successive periodical additions to their Policies, arising from the division of the surplus Capital. Three Septennial Bonuses have already been declared, amounting respectively to L.20, L.24, and L.25 per cent on the amount of Premiums deposited—the calculation, in each case, being made upon the whole Premiums paid from the date of the Policy.

The present income of the Society exceeds L.150,000 per annum, and the new Policies now issuing are in the proportion of eight hundred annually.

The subjoined list (exhibiting a few of the earlier Policies, with the additions thereto) will serve to show the practical operation of the principle of the Society.

Number	Sum Insured	First Bonus	Second Bonus	Third Bonus	Total Claim on the Society
477	L.1,070 0 0	L.74 8 0	L.193 8 0	L.310 0 0	L.1577 16 0
1259	1,000 0 0	59 16 0	197 15 0	337 2 6	1594 13 6
1745	2,000 0 0	66 0 0	264 0 0	467 17 0	2797 17 0
2470	3,000 0 0	26 0 0	254 0 0	496 17 6	3777 13 6
3589	4,000 0 0		465 0 0	1050 3 0	6514 5 0

The Insured are permitted, without any extra charge, to visit any part of Europe situate between the Elbe and Brest, and no extra payment is demanded in name of Entry-money, or to defray expenses of management.

Thus the Norwich Union Society, in present economy and in prospective advantage, is fully equal to any similar establishment in this kingdom.

FIRE SOCIETY.

CAPITAL, L.550,000.

This Institution is wholly distinct from the Life Society, and transacts every description of Fire Insurance business on the most liberal terms. The fulfillment of its engagements is guaranteed by a numerous and opulent proprietary, and the insured, who are free from all responsibility, participate with the shareholders in the profits. The last Dividend paid was at the rate of 10 per cent.

Expenses incurred by the removal of Goods, in case of fire, will be defrayed in proportion to the amount insured.

Losses by fire occasioned by lightning will be made good.

No charge is made for endorsements or alterations.

Tables of rates, and all other information, may be had at the office of the Societies, or of any of the Agents in Scotland.

IN all benefit Societies, with the exception of the Palladium, the profit which is returned by way of Bonus is given to all the insured. In the Palladium it is only given to those who insure when under fifty years of age; consequently the profit on all lives being added to their policies only, will at once show how (combined with the prosperity of the Society) these additions have been greater than those given by any other.

The highest first Septennial Division ever given by any other Society has been 25 per cent on the premiums paid. The first Septennial Division of the Palladium was 44½ per cent; and judging from the present state of the Society's affairs, the probability is, that the next Septennial Division will be fully as superior.

Those who insure before the expiry of this year will reap all the advantages which they would do by insuring in any other Society before that period.

Lives above fifty may also be assured, but they do not participate in the profits.

POWER VESTED IN THE ASSURED.—The holder of a Life Policy, effected for the whole term of the life of any person not exceeding fifty, will be entitled, after two annual payments of premium, to vote at General Meetings, viz. on a policy for L.1000, one vote; L.2000, two votes; L.3000, three votes.

By this most important arrangement, the assured obtain an effectual protection against an improvident application of the capital and funds of the Society, which, with the ample subscribed capital and the accumulation of premium, affords the best security for the payment of all just claims.

TRAVELLING ALLOWED.—All persons whose lives are assured in this Office, may pass and repass in time of peace from any part of Europe to another, by sea or land, without payment of additional premium.

ADVANTAGES OFFERED BY THIS COMPANY.

A VERY considerable reduction of Premium in the earlier stages of Life, so that L.1200 may be assured for the same annual payments as are required by other offices for the insurance of L.1000; thus securing at the outset, and without the liabilities of a partnership, a bonus equal to 20 per cent on the sum insured, instead of waiting, as in mutual Insurance Companies, for deferred periods, to which, after paying higher rates of Premium, the Insurer may never attain.

A large invested capital in the public funds for the security of the assured.

Payment of claims three months after death.

Extension of time for payment of renewal Premiums to thirty days.

Permission to persons, not seafaring by profession, to pass by sea, in time of peace, from any part of Europe to any other part, without paying any extra Premium, and without licence of the Directors.

A tender of arbitration in all disputed cases.

Purchase of Policies on the most liberal terms, when the object of an assurance has been effected, or individuals are unable to continue their annual payments.

Endowments on children attaining the ages of fourteen or twenty-one years.

Annuities granted on the most equitable terms, under a special Act of Parliament.

It has a most ample guarantee Fund.

It has no Shareholders or privileged Members, but all possess one common rateable interest.

Its Policy-holders have an efficient voice in the conduct of its affairs, and thus they see that the most prudent economy is observed.

One prevalent source of large expenditure has in this Office, as in the Equitable of London, been successfully resisted, and is entirely saved for the benefit of the Members.

It has been enabled, not to promise merely, but to make additions to its Policies of from 24 to 72 per cent on the Premiums paid.

It does not boast of the lowest rate of Premiums, but it boasts of exhibiting the purest principles of Mutual Assurance, and of combining security and economy to the utmost extent, and thus bestowing the greatest possible benefit on each contributor.

THE large accumulated Capital and Annual Revenue of this Institution (which, as a Life Assurance Association, is the oldest and most extensive in point of business in Scotland) enables the Directors to offer to the public the full advantages arising from the principle of its constitution, combined with the utmost measure of Security.

The great value of the principle of mutual contributionship, or, as it is generally termed, MUTUAL ASSURANCE, on which this Society is founded, is now well known. By the operation of this principle, taken in connexion with the careful selection of lives, and an economical management of the Society's business, it is evident that the advantages of Life Assurance are secured to their utmost possible extent. Indeed, they only require to be known and understood to be fully appreciated; and so rapidly accordingly has been the growth of this Society, that, during the last nineteen years, the annual revenue has increased from L.2300, to nearly ONE HUNDRED AND THIRTY THOUSAND POUNDS STERLING per annum, and the accumulated Fund from L.3000 to nearly SIX HUNDRED AND FORTY THOUSAND POUNDS STERLING, and both are in a state of steady and rapid increase.

The last periodical investigation of the Society's affairs took place at 31st December, 1831, when large additions were declared to the Assurances entitled thereto. In order to show the value of the additions made out of the Surplus Fund, the following particulars are given of the claim arising under a Policy opened previous to 1820, if emerging in the current year by the death of the party assured:—

The Ordinary Court of Directors meet weekly for the purpose of receiving and deciding on applications for Assurance, which are now granted to the extent of L.5000, on approved single or joint lives.

THIS COMPANY is constituted by Act of Parliament, and the principle of its Constitution is sanctioned by the highest authorities on the subject of Life Assurance.

The Capital of the Company is Five Hundred Thousand Pounds Sterling, besides which, the Premiums and Accumulating Interest for an Increasing Fund, wholly applicable to the purposes of the institution.

While persons making assurances are thus provided with an undoubted guarantee for the fulfilment of the Company's engagement, they also have it in their power, without incurring responsibility, to participate largely in the profits of the business.

The results of the investigation of the Company's affairs, as at 14th November, 1835, give the best evidence of the benefits which are afforded by this establishment.

The following table exhibits specimens of the bonus additions which have been declared by the Company on policies opened prior to that date, in the class entitled to participate in the profits of the business. These additions are vested rights under policies of five years' standing.

The second investigation will be instituted at 15th November 1840, and so on QUINQUENNALLY thereafter.

The system which has been adopted in the division of profits is particularly advantageous to Assurers (being similar to that acted upon so successfully by the Equitable Society and Rock Assurance Company of London), while at the same time, as the Company possesses a subscribed Capital adequate to the most extensive business, the assured are relieved from that anxiety which must naturally exist where they alone, as, under the system of mutual guarantee, are the parties liable to all the risk of an extended business of this nature.

In addition to the advantages offered by a large subscribed Capital, and the equitable principles on which the division of profits proceeds, the Standard Life Assurance Company holds forth to the public another regulation conferring peculiar benefit on Assurers, viz:—The provision, that a division of Profits shall be made among the Assured at the expiry of every five years. The importance of this arrangement must be evident to every one, as affording, in the first place, renewed opportunities of minute investigation into the Company's affairs; and, in the second, great advantage to Policy-holders, by the frequent additions which will thus periodically be made to their Policies.

The other provisions and regulations for conducting the business of the Company are conceived on the most liberal principles for the encouragement of Assurance among all classes. The following are among them:—

No charge is made on parties assuring, under the head of Entry Money, Admission Fee, or otherwise.

Premiums may be made payable yearly, half-yearly, or quarterly, according to the inclination of parties.

Military men are not charged with extra premiums, unless called into actual service.

Persons whose lives are Assured, are permitted to pass and repass by sea, in time of peace, from any part of Europe to another, without application being made for such license, or payment of any additional premium on account of the same.

No extra premium is charged for Foreign residence, temporary or permanent, within the limits of Europe; parties going beyond these limits are assured on reasonable terms.

Onerous Assignees to Policies opened by persons on their own lives when duly admitted by the Company as the holders, will be considered to stand in an equally favourable situation as if they had been the original assurers.

In cases where money is advanced by the Company by way of Redeemable Annuity, parties will be entitled, on redemption, to a Policy of assurance to the extent of the whole sum advanced, upon the same beneficial footing as to the rate of Premium as if the Policy had been issued at the date when the transaction was originally entered into.

Assurances of fixed sums, for limited periods, and on the various combinations of Joint Lives and Survivorships, as well as Immediate and Deferred Annuities and Endowments, can be effected on moderate and advantageous terms.

Commission allowed to Agents transacting business with the Company.

THE SCOTTISH PROVIDENT INSTITUTION,

FOR THE ASSURANCE OF

CAPITAL SUMS AND ANNUITIES ON LIVES AND SURVIVORSHIPS.

OFFICES,

No. 16, SOUTH ST DAVID STREET, EDINBURGH.—No. 76, VIRGINIA STREET, GLASGOW.

Bankers,.....The National Bank of Scotland.

Medical Officer,...Sir George Ballingall, Surgeon to the Queen.

Solicitor,.....William Pollock, Esq. 13, York Place.

THE DIRECTORS beg again to call attention to the peculiar advantages offered by this INSTITUTION, which has now attained a position which leaves no doubt as to its future progress.

1. The Premium for an Assurance on the whole of Life, at the age 25, for instance, is lower by more than 26 per cent than in many other Offices. For £1000, they require a premium which would assure £1265 in this Office; besides an arbitrary and unequal payment, in name of entry money. No entry money is demanded by the Provident.

2. Supposing these offices to add 1 per cent every year, upon an average, to the sum contained in their Policies, it will require the payment of premiums for almost 27 years, the age at admission being 25, before the assured can become entitled to the same benefit, which, in the Provident, is secured by the payment of the same premium for only one year: even if the addition be at the rate of  $1\frac{1}{2}$  per cent per annum, the premiums must be paid for 18 years. All such Policies, which, as the case may be, become claims at the end of 27 years or 18 years respectively, consequently produce not more than the Policies of this Office, however early the claim may emerge; and, if the life fail in 5 or even 10 years, they yield less in many offices than in this by upwards of 26 per cent.

3. The Surplus is reserved by this Institution for the benefit of those from whose premiums it has been raised, instead of being frittered away among Policies of only a few years' standing, on which there must always be a great loss.

This is a peculiar feature of the present Institution, whereby it combines, in some degree, the benefits of a Tontine with those of an ordinary assurance office. Policies of long standing may thus, as in the LONDON EQUITABLE, produce twice or three times the sum originally assured; or, on such Policies, the premiums may be altogether discontinued. The practical effect of this arrangement, indeed, is to give to the public the benefit of the reduced premiums charged by only a few of the proprietary companies which retain all the profits, while the assured will eventually obtain a much larger addition to their Policies than from offices that charge the highest premiums. For those who may not live to become entitled to a share of the surplus, the low premiums of this Institution are evidently equivalent to a Bonus, in most cases amounting to one-fourth of the sum assured, from the very dates of their Policies.

ANNUITIES, immediate and deferred,—reversionary and contingent,—are granted upon single or joint lives, or on any one, or either, of two lives, at prices obtained, by strict calculation, from the most approved Tables of Mortality, with no other addition than a small per centage for charges; the annuitant having the benefit of accumulation at 4 per cent.

THIS Incorporation is composed of a numerous and influential body of Proprietors, and affords unquestionable security to the public from the magnitude of its capital—a large proportion of which is invested in Government and real securities. By conducting its operations on an extensive scale, and over the whole Empire, it is enabled to equalize those vicissitudes which may arise from the influence of local causes; and, from the success which has attended this National Establishment, it is permanently placed on a secure basis.

FIRE DEPARTMENT.

Property, real and personal, of every description, may be insured on the most advantageous terms; common insurances of the first class at the reduced rates, and property involving more than ordinary hazard, at rates of premium commensurate with the value of the risks.

All Losses, when satisfactorily ascertained, are immediately paid.

LIFE DEPARTMENT—PARTICIPATION IN PROFITS.

TWO-THIRDS of the profits are allotted at regular periods to the insured, WITHOUT BEING SUBJECT TO ANY DEDUCTION FOR CHARGES OF MANAGEMENT. The first division will be made on first January, 1842. The remaining one-third will be reserved by the Incorporation as a compensation for undertaking the whole expense of management, and for the security afforded by their capital against all possible contingencies.

REDUCED RATES. NO PROFITS.

To facilitate Loan transactions, a reduced scale of rates has been adopted, which will be found particularly favourable to the Insured, especially for young and middle-aged persons.

Moderate rates are demanded for Insurance against the contingencies of foreign climates, military or naval service, and voyages to distant countries; also for healthy persons above the age of 60, and for persons of all ages, afflicted with gout, asthma, rupture, or other serious maladies.

Prospectuses, detailing more particularly the various advantages offered by this Incorporation to the public, with Tables of the rates both for Life and Fire Insurance, may be obtained by applying at their Office, No. 47, George Street, Edinburgh, or at any of their authorized Agents throughout the Kingdom.

THIS COMPANY, established by Act of Parliament, affords the most perfect security from an ample capital, and only requires, when an Insurance is for the whole period of life, ONE-HALF of the very moderate Premiums to be paid for the first five years after the date of the Policy, the other half may remain, subject to the payment of interest at five per cent annually, to be deducted at death, or may previously be paid off at convenience.

Thus a man twenty-five years old may, by an annual payment of L.28, 16s. 3d. for the first five years, secure to his widow and children, at his death, payment of no less than L.3000, subject only to the deduction of L.144, 1s. 3d., being the amount of premium unpaid.

SCOTTISH INSTITUTION FOR THE EDUCATION OF YOUNG LADIES,
 EDINBURGH, 15, GREAT STUART STREET WEST.

THREE years ago, a number of individuals, who were professionally engaged in teaching, resolved to unite in forming an Institution in Edinburgh for the Education of Young Ladies. They were encouraged in their attempt by the very general desire for a more extended system of female education,—little attention having been hitherto devoted to the instruction of Ladies in the many highly useful and now popular branches of Physical Science. The special object of the Institution was therefore to unite the ordinary and the ornamental branches of education with such a liberal course of instruction in the Physical Sciences as had not previously been attempted in schools, and at such a fee as would render the branches thus combined accessible to the great majority of the respectable classes of society.

Quarter days, 1st October, 15th December, 1st March, and 15th May.

* * All payments per advance.

Elocution hours from 9 till 11, and from 12 till 2 o'clock.

Mr M'D. receives pupils from four years of age and upwards.

With regard to character and ability, Mr M'Donald has permission to refer to the Rev. Dr Muir, Dr D. Ritchie, St Andrew's Church, Dr Lee, Dr Jamieson, the Rev. R. S. Candlish, and the Rev. J. Kirkwood.

And besides numerous Certificates in Mr M'D.'s possession, he has the honour of referring to the following:

From the Rev. Dr Dickson.

"I hereby certify, that I have been acquainted with Mr M'Donald, teacher, for a number of years, during which I have always had reason to regard him as a man of excellent Christian principle, and exemplary moral character. That besides having repeatedly examined his school, two of my own children attended it, with whose progress, under his tuition, in English Reading, Grammar, and Geography, I was much satisfied; while the manner in which he attended to their religious instruction, gave me peculiar satisfaction.

DAVID DICKSON, Minister.

"West-Kirk Manse, January 22, 1833."

From Sir Reginald Macdonald Seton Stewart, Bart.

"Mr M'Donald, teacher of English and of Elocution in Edinburgh, has been well known to me for several years; and from that knowledge, and the conviction I have of his abilities and superior talent as a teacher; and in particular, in the teaching of the higher branches of English Literature and Elocution; and farther, from the experience I have had of Mr M'Donald's unwearied attention and indefatigable zeal and diligence, from having had one of my own sons under his charge, I have no hesitation in attesting and declaring, that I know of few in this part of Scotland who are equal, and certainly none superior to him.

"R. MACDONALD of Staffa.

"Edinburgh, Nov. 27, 1832."

From James Gall, Esq. Author of the Lesson System of Teaching, &c.

"Mr M'Donald combines mildness with firmness in an uncommon degree, regulated by a cautious prudence, which I found produced the happiest effects on my own children, three of whom were taught by him at different times. There is one peculiar characteristic he possesses above any other teacher I have known, which is, a great facility in making his pupils understand and apply what they read and learn. The advantages of this in my children are felt every day.

"JAMES GALL.

"Edinburgh, July 25, 1827."

"Mr M'Donald—My dear Sir,—In looking over the testimonial furnished to you in 1827, I have only to reiterate what is there stated, and which the lapse of time since that period has only tended to strengthen.

"JAMES GALL.

"Myrtle Bank, Trinity, Feb. 1, 1833."

From J. F. Macfarlane, Esq.

"My Dear Sir,—I regret very much that from removing at this term to Blackett Place, Newington, it will be impossible to continue Christina at your school. The distance is far too great for her to go. Had it been otherwise, I would have made no change; for I am so satisfied with the progress she has made, and with your system of tuition, which, so far as I can judge of it, seems most excellent, that I am convinced she never could be placed with a master more competent, and more anxious to advance her education. Accept my best thanks for your attention to my daughter, and believe me, dear sir, yours very truly,

"JOHN F. MACFARLANE.

"Edinburgh, 18th May, 1836."

From the Rev. J. Clark.

"I have this day witnessed the examination of Mr M'Donald's pupils, and have much pleasure in stating that, from the different specimens which they gave of their progress in English Reading, Recitation, Grammar, History, and Geography, Mr M'D. continues to maintain the character which hitherto he has so well merited,—of being an eminently qualified and successful Teacher. In particular, I was much gratified with the quiet, attentive, and orderly behaviour of his pupils, their knowledge of the elementary truths of religion, and Mr M'D.'s success in carrying their understanding along with their progress in the art of reading.

"JOHN CLARK, Minister, Canongate.

"Edinburgh, March 28, 1834."

CRITICISMS BY THE PRESS.

"On Monday week Mr M'Donald gave a selection of Readings, with his pleasant and elegant manner of reciting drew forth the approbation of a numerous and respectable assembly. We consider Mr M'Donald, from his correct pronunciation and graceful delivery, well qualified as a Teacher of Elocution."—Edinburgh Weekly Journal, Nov. 30, 1825.

"On Thursday evening Mr M'Donald delivered a series of Readings and Recitations, in the Hope-toun Rooms, to a very full and respectable audience. The pieces throughout were received with much approbation."—Caledonian Mercury, Sept. 30, 1833.

"As an Elocutionist, Mr M'Donald stands high in his profession, and has long been a favourite of the public."—Scotsman, Feb. 22, 1834.

"Mr M'Donald is an excellent speaker, and as an Elocutionist may be classed among the cleverest of the present day."—Edinburgh Weekly Chronicle, Sept. 27, 1834.

"We never enjoy so much pleasure, or receive so much profit, as when we hear a favourite author properly read. To give the lights and shades of the meaning of a poet or orator, requires a com-

(Mr M'Donald's Advertisement—Continued). bination of physical and intellectual powers, which are seldom to be found united in one person; and, therefore, when we meet with such a person, we are proportionally thankful. None of those who have heard Mr M'Donald recite, will contradict us when we say, that there are few equal, and none superior to him in this city, in this difficult art. Whether the subject be 'grave or gay,' or 'lively or severe,' he is equally at home in exciting the emotions of the heart, or convulsing his audience with laughter."—Saturday Evening Post, Feb. 28, 1835.

"Certainly, from the energy and enthusiasm of Mr M'Donald, as well as from his discriminating taste, he must be a successful Teacher."—Edinburgh Observer, March 10, 1835.

"We have frequently had occasion to record our high opinion of this Gentleman as an Elocutionist, and it gives us pleasure to speak of him once more. Last night he delivered a selection of Readings and Recitations in the Hopetoun Rooms, before a very large and fashionable assembly, who evinced during the whole evening the greatest enthusiasm. Mr M'Donald has a very fine voice, which, combined with a singular energy and versatility of action, enables him to command the attention of his audience, whether he calls forth their sympathies and deep emotions by the pathetic, or excites their humour by some comic performance; besides, every feature of his countenance and muscle of his body are under due subordination. Those who heard from him last night, 'Lord William and Edmund, and 'The Philistine in the Coal-Hole' (Mansie Wauch), had abundant evidence of the truth of what we say."—Edinburgh Patriot, Sept. 26, 1835.

and speedily will be published,
for the use of Schools, &c.

COAL.

EDINBURGH, DALKEITH, AND LEITH RAILWAY.

THE MID-LOTHIAN Coal Proprietors bring many kinds of Coal into the Railway depots at Edinburgh and Leith. All those of the finest qualities are sent thither, carefully selected and handpicked; and those of inferior quality are sold at proportionally inferior prices.

It will be evident to all, of how great importance it is to the consumer, as a security against fraud, to have the stores of the coal proprietors thus brought into town. In railway-borne coal, no dealer could commit a fraud without a connivance with the servants of one of the coal proprietors, and also with the servants of the Railway Company. It is especially to be remembered, that the Railway Company and their officers have no common interest with the dealers in any article carried on the Railway; they only furnish the means of transport; and it is their interest to see justice done to the public, in which the officers exercise the functions of a police, in virtue of the Railway Act, which empowers them to compel all coal carried out of the depots to undergo the test of the Company's weighing machines. The weighers enter in their register the weight and quality of every cart of coals, the name upon the cart, and the time of the day; so that the purchaser may refer to the weigher's book if he suspects a fraud.

Let consumers of coals attend pointedly to the following instructions:—

1st, Never receive coals without a certificate of weight and quality from one of the Railway Company's weighers.

2dly, Attend to the hour of departure marked in the certificate; and if the carter appears to have travelled under the rate of three miles an hour, reject his coals.

3dly, Never allow the certificate to be kept and carried away by the Carter; but when inspected, let it be destroyed, or inclosed to the Manager or the weigher, if it has any appearance of being a forgery.

4thly, If coals appear on delivery to be of a different quality from what were ordered, a competent person shall be sent to inspect them, on application being made to the weigher.

5thly, Avoid any coal merchant who appears unreasonably averse to supplying Railway-borne coal. The respectable portion of the coal merchants in Edinburgh and Leith have a great advantage in supplying their customers directly from the stores of the coal proprietors in the Railway depots; for they save thereby the expense of private coal-yards, and of storing, selecting, and loading; and through the Railway Weigher's Register, they can always obtain a check upon their carters, and evidence of their own honesty.

N. B.—No coals are allowed to be weighed in the Railway Depots, except those purchased there.

Weigher in Edinburgh Depot, Mr Wm. Murray.
Weigher in Leith Depot—Mr John Somerville.

RECOMMENDATIONS OF THE WORK.

"In 1784, he [Kay] published his first caricature, which represented a half-crazed Jacobite gentleman, named Laird Robertson, who was wont to amuse the citizens of Edinburgh by cutting caricatured resemblances of public characters, which he fixed on the head of his stick, and whose figure was perfectly known to all the inhabitants. The portrait, accordingly, excited some attention; and the author was induced to attempt others. The style assumed by Mr Kay was the stippled or dotted style; and nothing could equal the felicity of the likeness. From that time forward, till he was about eighty years of age, this untutored son of genius pursued his vocation, taking off, one after another, the whole of the public and eccentric persons who appeared in the Scottish capital, and occasionally caricaturing any jocular incident that happened to attract attention. To speak of his portraits as caricatures is doing them signal injustice. They were the most exact and faithful likenesses that could have been represented by any mode of art. He drew the man as he walked the street every day: his gait, his costume, every peculiarity of his appearance, done to a point; and no defect perceptible, except the stiffness of the figures. Indeed, he may be said to have rather resembled one of the prosopographers or apographs of modern times, than a living artist trusting to his eye and hand."—Chambers's Scottish Biographical Dictionary.

"Kay, although, technically and professionally speaking, he had little claim to the name of an artist, possessed a very happy facility in discovering the various peculiarities of character, as evinced in the human face and figure, and in transmitting them to paper in so faithful and forcible a manner, that it was impossible to mistake the individuals on whom he exercised this his native and original talent. Kay lived at a fortunate period. To use the words of an able northern contemporary—'It was an age of transition. Refinement was struggling to gain the ascendancy in a society hitherto compounded of feudal barbarism and rude slovenliness, such as we find depicted in the Cottagers of Glenburnie or in Matthew Bramble's account of Edinburgh. Literature and science were then in their first luxuriant burst: there were Cullen, and Black, and Adam Smith, and Robertson, and Monboddo, and Kames, and Gregory. Along with these sprouted up a plentiful supply of quacks, such as Brown and Graham. All classes of society were then in a manner close packed in the Old Town, not diffused through the wide expanse of the New. 'The toe of the peasant galled the kibe of the courtier.' Edinburgh was one great carnival from one end of the year to the other, and almost all the characters were supported with the unction of genius. This strange masquerade has been immortalised in three hundred and fifty-six engravings by the kindred genius of Kay.' The present number comprehends ten highly amusing Plates; most of them containing several Portraits. Those of Lord Monboddo, Lord Kames, and Lord Gardenstone, are especially interesting. We will take an early opportunity of advertising to the 'Biographical Sketches' in another part of our publication."—London Literary Gazette.

"The interest of this extremely curious production does not appear to diminish as it advances. Those who have any relish for the ludicrous, as well as for traditional anecdotes connected with Edinburgh and its last-century characters, would do well to patronize the publication."—Chambers's Journal.

"We do not know who is the writer of the biographical sketches, but they are most characteristic, and show an intimate acquaintance with the history and peculiarities of the personages described, which is quite striking. We almost think that these contributions must be the conjoint work of several writers, each of them having a tourneur of mind akin to that of Kay himself. The likenesses are well known to be admirable, Kay, in this department, not having had a rival in this country. In short, Kay's Edinburgh Portraits, form the most curious work now being published; and altogether constitute a treat of which no Edinburgh person, indeed no Scotsman, should deny himself." * * * "We think it a work deserving of every praise and encouragement, and which is honourable equally to the talents of Kay, and to the enterprise of Mr Paton, the spirited publisher."—Weekly Chronicle.

"We believe we are perfectly safe in saying, that there are few modern periodicals perused with greater avidity than is this curious record of a past age. To a native of Edinburgh especially, the "Characters" must be peculiarly interesting—recalling to memory, as they cannot fail to do, if not the very feature, gait, and manner of the remarkable persons who used to attract their youthful notice, at least some laughable or interesting anecdote which their fathers or mothers used to delight to communicate respecting them. There is no one, indeed, to whom the quaint style of the portraits, and familiar chit-chat of the letter-press, will not be both amusing and interesting; and we cordially commend the work to our readers."—Scotsman.

"The publication of this popular work continues with unabated vigour; and the characters introduced in the series possess undiminished interest. The work is really one of which Edinburgh ought to be proud. We suppose most large towns could furnish as many eccentric characters as are here recorded, but we doubt whether any could furnish as many celebrated ones; and we believe there is none fortunate enough in possessing an artist like Kay, who has succeeded so admirably in handing down to posterity accurate and characteristic likenesses of both these classes. To strangers, it may be necessary to mention, that Kay's portraits have always maintained a high reputation in Edinburgh, as faithful and genuine resemblances of the eccentric or distinguished men, on whom he exercised his native and self-taught talent. We cannot omit to add, that the memoirs accompanying the portraits are written in a pleasing style, and detail a number of curious and even romantic anecdotes, which add considerably to the interest of the work."—Edinburgh Courant.

"Besides having the merit of giving faithful representations of the face, 'the mirror of the mind,' these portraits exhibit the figure, the dress, and the very gait of the individuals; and form of themselves historical data of the most valuable kind. Kay is said to be almost the only man who ever succeeded in giving the characteristics of an individual so accurately, that the subject drawn was known whether represented in a back or front view."—Aberdeen Herald.

NOTICE.

THE "EDINBURGH PORTRAITS," now in the course of Publication for the first time in a complete form, are the entire production of a self-taught artist—JOHN KAY—who devoted his talents for a number of years to the delineation of the person and features of almost every individual of note, either resident in, or visiting the Scottish capital, in his day. The celebrity which these works attained, as they successively appeared, is the best criterion of their general excellence. Except in a few instances, they were drawn from memory alone, without the knowledge or privacy of the individuals represented; and hence their claim to public favour rested exclusively on the notoriety of the subject, and the characteristic propriety and fidelity of the artist's pencil. The advantages possessed by a man of Kay's genius in this way are sufficiently obvious. He was entirely free and unfettered in his choice. He had no temptation to conceal defects or heighten beauties—to spare Ovid's nose or Alexander's shoulder. He had only to copy nature as he found her, in all her varieties—in her most open and unguarded moments; and, by holding up the mirror, extort from her a full confession of his power.

The artist appears to have been perfectly aware of his privileges; and, being a satirist in his way, and a wag to boot, certainly did not scruple occasionally to indulge in exaggeration. Yet his satire is without malignity; and, although it may have sometimes brought him into unpleasant collision with those who felt its sting, he enjoyed an ample recompence in the involuntary homage thus rendered to his skill.

The name of John Kay has long been familiar as a household word among the citizens of Edinburgh—to the old, by associations derived from the vivid impression which his earlier and more spirited sketches made upon their youthful fancy—and to the young, from his connexion with many a pleasing anecdote and fireside reminiscence related by their seniors. To the former it will recal scenes and characters that have long since passed away; and, to the latter, it will give a lively idea of their predecessors on the stage of life, over whom the curtain has now closed. But the time in which the artist first commenced his career was highly favourable to a more extensive diffusion, as well as a lengthened endurance, to his fame. It was the golden age of literature in our Scottish metropolis, when a brilliant constellation of philosophers, historians, and critics, shed such a lustre upon her annals as had no parallel in modern times, and might be said to rival those of the most famous city in classic ages—Athens, "the eye of Greece."

Some author remarks that a great hero or conqueror is nothing without a historian. It may be asserted with equal truth that an author is a mere name, vox et preterea nihil, without a limner. Judging by this principle, we shall find that the present series includes the effigy of almost every one of those eminent individuals who were then the ornament, as they are still the boast, of our native city—comprehending as it does such names as Principal Robertson,

Adam Smith, Dr Hugh Blair, Lord Kames, Black, Hutton, Smellie, Lord Hailes, Lord Monboddo, and, in later times, Sir Walter Scott, Leslie, Brougham, Jeffrey, besides most of the Lords of Session, Professors in the University, and many other names distinguished in the walks of science and literature. Besides all this, hardly a citizen of any consideration, or in short any individual whatever, conspicuous for public spirit, eccentricity, or personal peculiarity of any kind, escaped the penetrating eye of honest John Kay. The citizen of the present day, therefore, is presented with a living panorama of the streets of Edinburgh as they appeared half a century ago.

Kay did not, like the professional painter, who works to please his customer, lay hold of his subject in a guarded moment, with a stiff and formal look and attitude put on for the occasion—he caught the fleeting gesture, the careless and unconstrained gait, the every-day expression of countenance, and arresting them as by the wand of an enchanter, rendered them fixed and immoveable. His portraits, therefore, bear as little resemblance to such laboured productions of the schools, as the sentient being does to “his grandsire cut in alabaster.” Like his illustrious contemporary in a sister art, the poet Burns, the genius of his country found him at the barber's block, and threw her inspiring mantle over him. She courted him in her most playful and mischief-loving mood—opened his eyes to whatever of the ludicrous or absurd was passing around him—and endued him with the happiest knack for portraying such attributes of the living model with a peculiar raciness and prominency. Viewed as a caricaturist, there is this difference betwixt him and the celebrated Cruickshanks of our own day—that the latter is indebted to his own imagination for the whimsical productions of his pencil, whereas Kay has created a similar combination of grotesque characters and situations derived from actual life. The state of society and manners in the Scottish metropolis at the time was peculiarly favourable. The citizens of every grade were concentrated in a comparatively small focus; and the better classes were in the habit of resorting daily, betwixt the hours of one and three o'clock, to the Cross, as a general place of rendezvous. Kay had thus the most ample opportunities for the indulgence of his peculiar vein. He required to go no farther than his own door in search of a fit subject for his pencil. Whether his eye might rove in quest of the spectral form of Hugo Arnot, or the solid bulk of Osborne—of the person of David Hume the philosopher, or Laird Robertson the fool—of Sir James Hunter Blair in the full-blown dignity of civic honours, or his fantastic rival Bailie Jamie Duff—of Sam M'Donald the giant, or Geordie Cranstoun the dwarf—of Braxfield the judge, or Brodie the criminal—all alike were daily, and almost hourly, within the scope of his vision. Taken altogether, the Work fully justifies what the author of the Traditions of Edinburgh most felicitously remarks, that “no city in the empire can boast of so curious a chronicle.”

The Publisher has much pleasure in acknowledging the very flattering reception with which the Publication has been received; and the list of Subscribers, he is happy to say, is daily augmented by orders from all parts of the country.

The Lozenges which are sold under the name of Cinnamon Lozenges, are universally made from Cassia Oil. A. Ferguson's is prepared with the real Cinnamon oil, which cannot be had under £5 per lb. The Cassia oil is only 12s. The difference in the flavour is very great.

Peppermint Lozenges are generally made with foreign oil, which is nearly one-half of the price of the English kind. The foreign being grown in fields, is distilled with weeds, and is very rank. The English is grown in gardens, and has a much finer flavour. A. Ferguson's are warranted to be made with the finest English oil.

* * Families who are in the habit of sending presents of Confections to their young Friends abroad, are requested to try A. FERGUSON'S Superior MIXTURES. His Ginger, Cinnamon, Peppermint, and other Stomachic LOZENGES, for strength and fineness of flavour, he is confident cannot be surpassed, One Ounce of which being equal to Three Ounces of the generality of Lozenges sold. No extra Charge, and requires only publicity to be approved of.

Wholesale Dealers, Agents, and Exporters, who buy with Cash, may have from a Cwt. to a Ton of Confections carefully packed and ready on a few days' Notice.
